

KOSHA–NPS Sign Business Agreement to Share Advanced Audit Technique

- Dong-wuk Lim, the Standing Auditor of KOSHA, and Chun-gu Lee, the Standing Auditor of National Pension Service (NPS) on the 29th signed a business agreement to share advanced audit technique at the NPS located in Jeonju, Jeollabuk-do.
- Based on this agreement, both agencies agreed to share audit-related information and engage in human resource exchanges and also to provide full cooperation to each other in order to realize social values.
- Mr. Dong-wook Lim, the Standing Auditor of KOSHA, said, “Advanced audit techniques to be shared through this agreement are the most important asset destined to elevate expertise of both agencies.”
- “Based on cooperation and communication, the KOSHA is dedicated to focusing its all resources on providing customer-oriented occupational accident prevention services,” Lim added.