

KOSHA Issues Joint Declaration between Labor and Management to Realize Social Value and Promote Workers' Culture for Mutual Respect

- KOSHA and the Trade Union of KOSHA (Chairperson: Leem Tae-hyeong) announced a joint declaration for ‘Realization of Social Value and Promotion of Workers’ Culture for Mutual Respect” on the Sep. 17th at the headquarters in Ulsan.
- The labor and management of the KOSHA came to an agreement to make efforts to create high-quality jobs, guarantee labor rights, improve working conditions and foster a culture mutually respecting each other.
- Moreover, both parties confirmed their determination to establish themselves as a leading and reliable agency on social values by accomplishing innovations within KOSHA and anchoring to build an innovative and broad-minded nation based on fair economy and assertive administration.
- Park, Doo Yong, the President of KOSHA, insisted, “The most significant driving force of public agency that is completely trusted by the general public begins with the cooperative labor-management relationship.”
- Lee, Tae-hyeong the Chairperson of KOSHA Trade Union, said, “We are committed to labor-management cooperation in order to create high-quality jobs, guarantee labor rights and improve working conditions through this joint declaration.”

The KOSHA (President: Park, Doo Yong, 7th from the right) and the agency's Labor Union (Chairperson: Lee, Tae-hyeong, 7th from the left) announced a joint declaration to realize social values and promote a culture for workers to respect each other at the headquarters of KOSHA on September 17th.